Dear Reader,

We are excited to share with you some upcoming events at the library and in our community. We hope this newsletter will serve as a handy resource for you and your family as you plan your winter break.

Happy Holidays,

Wolfforth Library Staff

December Book Sale

The library will be hosting a book sale the week before Christmas. Hardback books will be 2 for $1, and paperback books will be 5 for $1. Come find a good read to snuggle up with. We will also have hot cocoa available for our shoppers! Hours are listed below:

Winter Book Sale Hours
Monday December 18, 2017	10am – 7pm
Tuesday December 19, 2017	10am – 7pm

Library Programs for Adults

We heard there was some new interest in adult program; for instance, a book club. Well... Our Book Club has been sponsored by and meeting at the Wolfforth Library for a couple or so years now, and we love it!

The group reads just about any genre - Fiction, Non-fiction, Young Adult, Mystery, Juvenile Fiction, Classical Literature... Any member can suggest a book. We just finished Gail Honeyman's recent book (her first, actually), Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine, and now are starting an old classic, Jane Eyre. For December's meeting, we will read two very short seasonal books, The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, by Barbara Robinson, and The Story of the Other Wise Man, by Henry Van Dyke. For January, we are thinking about Delicious! by Ruth Reichl.

Join us! Find a copy of Jane Eyre, read it, and come enjoy the discussion on Tuesday, November 14. We start gathering about 1:00pm to visit and snack, then get down to discussing the book from 1:30-2:30. We meet the second Tuesday of every month. Snacks are never obligatory but somebody usually brings some small something to share. It's supposed to tie in somehow with the book we're discussing. (For Eleanor Oliphant, it simply had to be either pizza or vodka. Guess which?)

You are welcome! We NEED you! More members = better discussions, more fun, and potentially more goodies. No pressure, No worries. We're a pretty laid-back group.

For more information, please feel free to call or text Judy Chapman, 806-632-3622.
